PRAYER OF THE DAY

Presider: Almighty God, gracious Lord, we thank you that your Holy Spirit renews the church in every age. Pour out your Holy Spirit on your faithful people. Keep them steadfast in your word, protect and comfort them in times of trial, defend them against all enemies of the gospel, and bestow on the church your saving peace, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

All: Amen.

WORD

FIRST LESSON

Jeremiah 31:31-34

³¹ The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ³² It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. ³³ But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴ No longer shall they teach one another or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord, for I will forgive their iniquity and remember their sin no more.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

(5:30 PM)

PSALMODY

Psalm 46

The Cantor or Choir sings the verses; the Congregation sings the Refrain as indicated.

REFRAIN

Be still and know that I am God. Be still and know that I am God.

Text: Psalm 46:10

Music: John L. Bell

PSALM TONE

¹God is our ref-¹uge and strength,
a very present¹ help in trouble.

²Therefore we will not fear, though the¹ earth be moved,
and though the mountains shake in the depths¹ of the sea;

³though its waters¹ rage and foam,
and though the mountains tremble¹ with its tumult.

⁴There is a river whose streams make glad the cit-¹y of God,
the holy habitation of¹ the Most High.

⁵God is in the midst of the city; it shall¹ not be shaken;
God shall help it at the¹ break of day.

⁶The nations rage, and the¹ kingdoms shake;
God speaks, and the earth¹ melts away.

Refrain

SECOND LESSON

Romans 3:19-28

¹⁹ Now we know that, whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world may be held accountable to God. ²⁰ For no human will be justified before him by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

²¹ But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed and is attested by the Law and the Prophets, ²² the righteousness of God through the faith of Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, ²³ since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; ²⁴ they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵ whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; ²⁶ it was to demonstrate at the present time his own righteousness, so that he is righteous and he justifies the one who has the faith of Jesus.

²⁷ Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. Through what kind of law? That of works? No, rather through the law of faith. ²⁸ For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

³¹ Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³² and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” ³³ They answered him, “We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, ‘You will be made free?’”

³⁴ Jesus answered them, “Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵ The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. ³⁶ So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.”

Preacher: The Gospel of the Lord.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Assisting

Minister: We rejoice in the living God in whom we set our hope. Let us pray to the Lord of hosts who dwells in our midst and will not forsake us.

A moment of silence.

O Lord,

Through the ages your Spirit has called your church to be transformed and turn again to you. Continue to shape your church to be an ever-widening circle of welcome, inviting all to your table of grace and mercy.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

Push us, your church, to act for the underserved and undervalued. Let us draw courage from the cross that marks us, to work for those who cannot feed their children, are imprisoned unjustly, seek a safe homeland, cannot afford housing. Humble us that in them, we see your face.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

Your written Word is every source of joy and comfort. We celebrate the young members of our congregation who receive Bibles this weekend. We pray that your sacred text be a lifelong companion of promise and peace for each of them.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

You move along holy paths where hearts are nourished, and miracles happen. So many ache for the touch of compassion, a soft voice of assurance, the release of suffering. We name here all whom we carry with us, silently or aloud. A moment of silence.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

O Lord, knowing our strength is in you, that you are ever-present, accept these prayers we lift to you. In your Son's name we pray

All: Amen.

PEACE

Presider: The peace of Christ be with you always.

All: And also with you.

It is indeed right, our du - ty and our joy,

who on this day overcame death and the grave,

and by his glorious resur - rec - tion opened to us the way of ev - er - last - ing life.

Sing ho - san - na in the high - est, sing ho - san - na to the Lord:
Tru - ly blest is one who comes in the name of the Lord!

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Presider: We give you thanks, Father, through Jesus Christ, your beloved Son, whom you sent in this end of the ages to save and redeem us and to proclaim to us your will.

He is your Word, inseparable from you, through whom you created all things, and in whom you take delight. He is your Word, sent from heaven to a virgin's womb. He there took on our nature and our lot and was shown forth as your Son, born of the Holy Spirit and of the virgin Mary. He, our Lord Jesus, fulfilled all your will and won for you a holy people; he stretched out his hands in suffering in order to free from suffering those who trust you.

He is the one who, handed over to a death he freely accepted, in order to destroy death, to break the bonds of the evil one, to crush hell underfoot, to give light to the righteous, to establish his covenant, and to show forth the resurrection.

Taking bread and giving thanks to you, said:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

In the same way he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, then, his death and resurrection, we take this bread and cup, giving you thanks that you have made us worthy to stand before you and to serve you as your priestly people.

Send your Spirit upon these gifts of your church; gather into one all who share this bread and wine; fill us with your Holy Spirit to establish our faith in truth, that we may praise and glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ; through whom all glory and honor are yours, almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy church, both now and forever.

All: Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

ANTHEM DURING COMMUNION

I Am Forever Who I Am
Prince of Peace Choir

Kurt von Kampen

Congregation shall sing the final refrain after verse 4.

Choir:

1. Though mountains slide in-to the sea, And waters rush where fields should be,
Though monuments and nations fall, Your holy city stands through all.
When nothing seems to stay the same, You teach us your eternal name. (Refrain)
2. Our lust for power, wealth, and land Diminishes the earth you planned.
Prevent our crimes and futile wars; Convince us that all things are yours.
We rage and burn and kill and steal, But you redeem, restore, and heal. (Refrain)
3. Like shepherds watching for the light, Aware of dangers in the night,
We hear the angel: "Do not fear, The Savior of the world is near."
We run, we see, we touch, we laugh. You came to earth on our be-half. (Refrain)
4. Some days seem long, though life is brief, And death is waiting like a thief.
When vision fades and dreams go dry, We will on unseen things rely.
Our stories take up but a page, But yours goes on from age to age.

Refrain – sung by all after verse 4:

The musical notation for the refrain is written on two staves in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The first staff begins with a 4/4 time signature and contains the lyrics: "I AM for - ev - er WHO I AM. A - bove you, be - neath you, A -". The second staff continues with the lyrics: "round you and with - in you. Be still and know that I am God." The notation includes various note values, rests, and phrasing slurs.

THE CHURCH YEAR

Reformation Sunday

Today we celebrate Reformation Sunday, which falls every year on the last Sunday in October. On this day, we commemorate Martin Luther's 95 Theses, which triggered the movement in world history known as the Reformation.

Today we remember the ongoing renewal of the Church and we rejoice in the Gospel teaching emphasized by Martin Luther: We are saved by grace through faith.
